

NPU & Neighborhood Leadership Training 2014

Saturday, February 8, 2014 9:00am to 3:00pm

City Hall Committee Room 2 (second floor)

For All NPU Officers and Neighborhood Leaders

Sponsored by: Atlanta City Planning Department
Atlanta Planning Advisory Board (APAB)

Receive information on:

- ❖ Traditional officer training on Leadership Duties and Responsibilities for all NPU positions
- ❖ Resource Information to assist in performing your duties
- ❖ City Office of Constituent Services – working with NPUs
- ❖ License Review Board Process – what's new
- ❖ Special Events – New requirements
- ❖ Solicitors Office and NPU Neighborhoods
- ❖ Zoning Review Board & Board of Zoning Review
- ❖ Ethics in NPU management and operations
- ❖ Learn more about how NPUs and Local Neighborhood Organizations are working together to build better neighborhoods

We all are Concerned Citizens and we are Committed to making a difference, but we must be Connected if our efforts are to be effective and long lasting.

Come to Connect with Other NPUs Come Get Training in Officer Duties Come Learn elements of City Planning Come to Get Resources

See you at the 2014 Leadership Training and bring a neighbor. All attendees will receive the 2014 Leadership Resource Guide.

Register Now by contacting the APAB 404-827-8011 or Email: apabatlanta@gmail.com
Please provide your name, address, phone, and indicate your NPU (if applicable).